1. It is reported that there are signs of a change in attitude on the part of the Military Junta in Peru toward granting a safe-conduct to Haya de la Torre. At least four members of the Cabinet, including the Foreign Minister are now in favor of finding some compromise if possible without loss of face.
2. Alberto Quesada L., a former Peruvian diplomat, has also stated that Senator Brandaris is now advising Odría that he should change his position. Of Odría's immediate advisers, only Eudocio Ravines remains intransigent, reminding the General that he cannot modify his position after his public statements of 8 March which proclaimed his unalterable stand against Haya. Among the Cabinet members, Llosa is reported to be maintaining his adamant position.
3. Victor Andres Belaunde, generally believed to be the author of the Peruvian reply to the Colombian Ambassador's request for the safe-conduct, is said by his son-in-law, Dr. Carlos Salazar, to have refused to collaborate again on a second Peruvian note.
